Takara Appoints Dianne Tookenay To Board Of Directors

TORONTO, ONTARIO—June 15, 2015 – Takara Resources Inc. ("Takara" or the "Company") (TSXV:TKK) is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Dianne Tookenay to the board of directors. Ms. Tookenay's appointment as a member of the board of directors adds significant strength and experience to the Company as it moves forward with its planned exploration program in Northern Ontario.

Ms. Tookenay is a First Nations individual with a background in Native Band Management and Economic Development. She began her career as an Ontario-based business development consultant for Aboriginal clients residing off-reserve. Following this, she worked as a business and economic development officer for Windigo First Nation Council and the Nishnawbe Aski Development Fund. In these roles she delivered programs such as Industry Canada's Aboriginal Business Canada Program and assisted clients with funding applications and business planning. Her broad experience with both First Nations and corporate entities in roles including policy advisor, education coordinator, financial administrator and strategic planner has given her a solid foundation in corporate development and community relations initiatives.

Ms. Tookenay holds a Certificate in Mining Law from the Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, a Joint Masters of Public Administration from the University of Manitoba, a Bachelor of Administration from Lakehead University and Native Band Management and Indian Economic Development Diplomas from Confederation College Applied Arts and Technology.

Ms. Tookenay's experience, knowledge and deep roots within the local community will add significant value to Takara's development efforts over the coming years.
